

Population in the last 10 Years

ASEAN Population Trend (2013 - 2022)

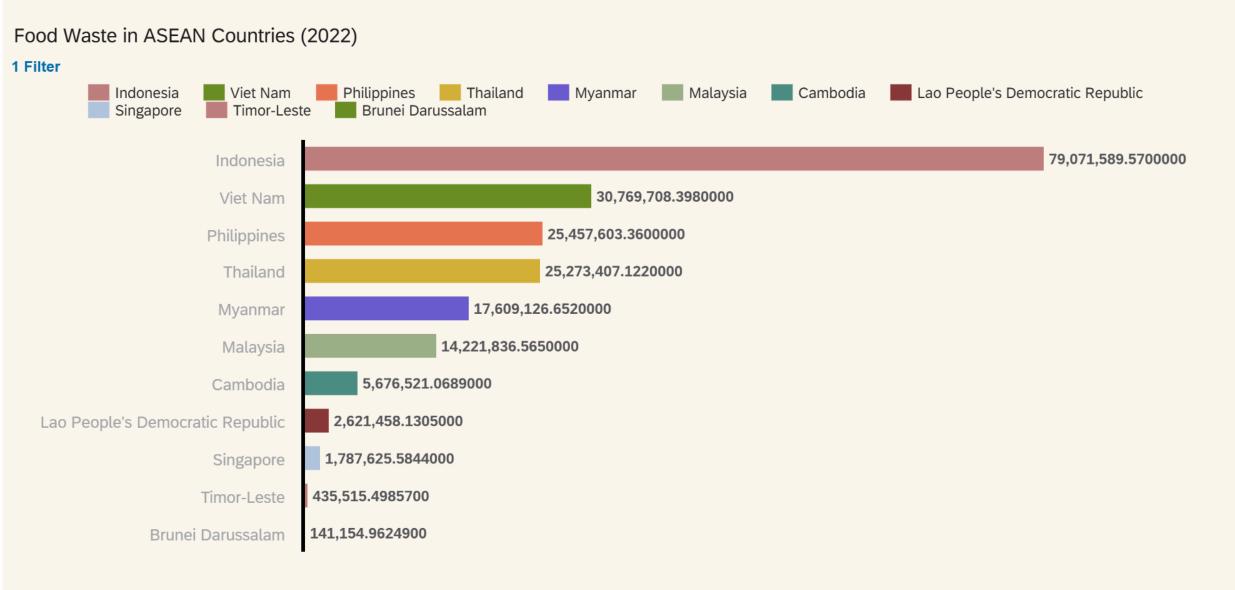

in k 2 Filters

Indonesia experienced the largest population growth in ASEAN between 2013 and 2022, with the Philippines coming in second.

98.1965000	99.8803000	101.5623000 92.226030	103.2429000 93.2507040	104.9214000 94.2899510	105.7551800 95.3891840	107.2881500 96.4839810	108.6670430 97.5826937	110.1980000 98.5062000	111.5722540 99.4617150
66.7545911 51.1840000	67.0026299 51.9910000	67.2359614 52.4500000	67.4546942 52.9170000	67.6532066 53.3880000	67.8315816 53.8630000	65.5570540 54.3400000	65.4211390 54.8179170	55.2949800	66.0900000 55.7702000
30.2137000	30.7085000	31.1861000	31.6335000	32.0225000	32.3822000	32.5230000	32.4474000	32.5763000	32.6981000
14.6765900	14.9323010	15.1917390	15.4539210	15.7176740	15.9817980	16.0786660	16.3380870	16.5920890	16.8433330
0.40	0.41 2000	0.41	0.41	0.42 3000	0.44 1000	0.4565000	0.45	0.4209990	0.4451000
2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022

Food Waste in ASEAN Countries (2022)

At over 25 million tons, the Philippines surpassed Thailand as the region's third-largest generator of food waste.

Population vs. Food Waste (2022)

Food waste rises with population growth , underscoring the pressing need for quickly rising countries to improve their approaches to managing and reducing food waste.

Links: https://aseandse.ap11.hcs.cloud.sap/sap/fpa/ui/app.html#/story&/s/64201F0464401CF3B654EB991E4F2882/? mode=edit&resourceType=STORY

DATASET

- http://aseanstats.org/publication/asean-statistical-yearbook-2023/
- https://unstats.un.org/sdgs/dataportal/database